Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, line 8: Is “an individual object” a subset of “stacks of objects? It would be better to recite --one of said individual objects--.

Claim 2, line 3: “another compartment” is indefinite; is this part of “a plurality of compartments”?

Claim 3: to what does “its” refer to?

Claim 11, lines 12-15 do not recite method steps, e.g. do not recite “providing” or “using” or an otherwise –ing ending word that provides the active step. (Emphasis added.) Applicant is respectfully reminded that to be entitled to patentable weight in method claims, the structural limitations recited therein must affect the method in a manipulative sense, and not to amount to the mere claiming of a use of a particular structure. See Ex parte Pfeiffer, 135 USPQ 31 (1961). See also claims 12-19.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Remericq (FR 2778898 A1) (previously cited) in view of Guttinger (US 5,261,522).

With respect to claim 1, Remericq discloses a device comprising:

- plurality of compartments 1A moved along a path (indicated generally as 1B) that is perpendicular to compartments,
- transfer device 1R to withdraw individual objects from an occupied compartment and to insert objects into an empty compartment
- ejection device to eject objects forming a stack.

Guttinger discloses an ejection device 12, 58, 76 and compartments that move along a revolving chain 18, 19. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the apparatus of Remericq to include an ejection device and revolving chains, as per the teachings of Guttinger, to allow differences between accumulator infeeds and outfeeds that allows for differing relative speeds. C1.
